

Income Protection or Illness Benefit

1

Monthly income in case you become unable to work because of injury or illness.

Often, companies will give you sick-pay for a period of time. Income protection kicks in after that period. This can be expensive to take out individually.

