

5

Develop a withdrawal strategy.

Decide on withdrawal rates.

Plan how much you will withdraw from your pensions each year. The 4% rule is a common guideline, but personal circumstances may require adjustments.

Understand tax implications.

Be aware of how withdrawing funds will impact your taxes and plan accordingly to minimise tax burden.